

How to use the form « Avis du jury sur l'archivage et la diffusion de la thèse soutenue »

In accordance with the decree of May 25, 2016, the doctoral student must file his thesis, summary and keywords, in electronic format, to the university library, no later than one month before the defence of the thesis, for archiving, reporting and , dissemination (excluding confidentiality clause) on the university intranet. This deposit is mandatory and conditions the defence, the issuance of the provisional certificate of achievement and diploma. Dissemination by the institution of the thesis validated on the internet via the TEL server is subject to authorization by the author. The confidentiality declared by the president of the university to respect the rights of the industrial property is distinct from the embargo on the diffusion on the Internet which is the choice of the sole author. During the defence, the jury indicates on the form "Jury opinion on the archiving and dissemination of the thesis defended" if the thesis must be archived and distributed "as it is or after minor corrections" or if it requires major corrections.

✓ As it is or after minor corrections

" Fouls, misspellings, missing acknowledgments,
conclusion to be qualified,
missing reference,
compliance of the cover with the graphic charter validated by the university
... "

The doctor can file a new version of his thesis incorporating minor corrections under the following conditions :

- Upon receipt by the library of the jury opinion form
- A single deposit within three months after defence
- Verification of compliance for archiving by the library
- In the absence of filing in time, the version of the thesis filed before defence will be permanently archived and disseminated

✓ Major
corrections

" Appear on the minutes of defence "

The thesis can only be archived and disseminated after major corrections. The doctoral student must submit, under the responsibility of a designated jury member, a new version of his thesis incorporating the major corrections requested by the jury during the defence under the following conditions :

- E-mail of the doctoral school certifying that the requested corrections were made (the validation of the corrections is organized by the doctoral school)
- A single deposit within three months after defence
- Verification of compliance for archiving by the library
- The issue of the diploma certificate is subject to the submission of the corrected thesis