

How to come to Nice

Written by Administrator

Tuesday, October 04 2011 10:37 - Last Updated Tuesday, May 22 2018 14:44

BY AIRPLANE

The Nice-Cote d'Azur airport is situated on the Promenade des Anglais, at the western entrance of the city, seven kilometers from the city center and the immediate proximity of the Arenas business center and the activity zones such as Plaine 1, Saint Isidore and Lingostiere.

Airport connections

By road:

BUS number 98

Regular bus service that assures connection between the city center and the SNCF train station.

Regularly leaves every 30 minutes.

To know more visit: www.lignesdazur.com

TAXIS

Taxis are located at the exits of each terminal.

How to come to Nice

Written by Administrator

Tuesday, October 04 2011 10:37 - Last Updated Tuesday, May 22 2018 14:44

By taxi: the taxi stations are indicated in the city by blue signs. To reserve a taxi, taxi centers are available in major regional cities/towns.

Car rentals--counters located in the airport hall

To situate yourself: www.plan-nice.org

BY TRAIN

The SNCF train station Nice Thiers is situated several hundred meters away from the city center.

Tram station: the stop THIERS is very close.